THANK YOU.
FOR LETTING ME GROW WITH YOU

Before PCI came to me, I was skeptical of just how much change I could actually make. By contributing to PCI’s micro-enterprise programs, I helped someone in Zambia rebuild their dreams of starting a weaving business and having a voice in their community.

THANK YOU.
FOR BEING STRONG

Fifty years ago, the founders of PCI Consuelo and Richard were at the end of their careers, surrounded by friends who could no longer provide the support they needed. But through the generosity of dedicated individuals, they found the strength to build a new life. PCI will always be there for those who need it.

Positive Community Impact
Before PCI came to me, I was skeptical of just how much change I could actually make. By contributing to PCI’s micro-lending programs, I helped someone in Zambia realize their dream of starting a welding business and having a voice in their community.
